

Tailor-made logistics for the High-Tech and Semicon industry

When machines fail and production comes to a costly stop, urgently needed spare parts or sensitive chips need to be shipped with a reliable logistics partner who is fast, flexible and in full control of the transport chain.

With more than 15 years experience in the industry, time:matters combines optimal logistics solutions with maximum speed and reliability. We are AEO and ISO9001 certified, and our 24/7/365 multilingual customer service desk is exclusively dedicated to Semicon and High-tech companies.

Your advantages

Speed

Next-flight-out-service with higher loading priority. Shortest handling times, latest acceptance and early availability.

Control

Pro-active tracking, providing automatic and continuous updates of the shipment status at every milestone of the transport chain.

Flexibility

Ad-hoc tailor-made solutions to meet complex logistic challenges. We offer the fastest transport solutions.

Global network

More than 130 stations in Europe, USA, Israel, Mexico and China for the fastest transport by air. Global Express reaches 300 destinations in more than 100 countries.
