Aviation and Aerospace

Your reliable logistics provider for urgent spare parts delivery

Customized transport solutions for time-critical shipments

AOG situations require an immediate response. And only the fastest possible transport of spare parts helps avoid costly aircraft downtimes.

The same applies for MRO and periods of aircraft maintenance, the repair and replacement of OEM or PME/EPA parts, as well as the servicing of engines or equipment.

We develop customized transport solutions for highly sensitive and particularly urgent shipments.

Rely on our dense, global network of airlines and courier partners, where active monitoring ensures reliable, fast transports.

No consolidation. Pickup, delivery and customs clearance upon request.

Flexible airfreight services

As fast as you need it.

We offer the full range of services for AOG situations, from OBC (hand carry) and Sameday Air to Next-Flight-Out, Charter or Sameday Road.

Maximum speed & reliability

Short transit and handling times thanks to our own Courier Terminals at Frankfurt, Munich and Shanghai airports.

Active shipment monitoring and proactive status updates.

Exclusive handling of all shipments.

Exclusive network

Extensive Sameday Air network, covering Europe, North America, China and Asia-Pacific.

More than 20 partner airlines and >100 courier / handling partners.

Only available from time:matters.
