Customers benefit from even more flexibility and speed

Neu-Isenburg, July 9, 2012: Even more connections, even faster deliveries – effective immediately, time:matters, the international expert for global Special Speed Logistics, offers its customers numerous additional flights from Cologne (CGN) and Stuttgart (STR) to several destinations throughout Europe.

This service expansion is based on a network cooperation between time:matters and the Lufthansa subsidiary Germanwings. The advantage: optimized connections and an increased number of available direct flights enable customers with urgent sameday shipments to save a significant amount of time.

Franz-Joseph Miller, CEO of time:matters GmbH, explains: “Due to the cooperation with Germanwings, we are consistently expanding our services and creating positive synergistic effects for our Sameday Air network. From now on, additional direct flights allow our customers with highly urgent shipments to save valuable time on even more routes – in some cases even up to four hours. Through the cooperation with Germanwings we are able to offer a total of 236 additional flights to 33 destinations daily, which makes our network even more attractive to our customers.”
