

Christian Mörtl new COO, Managing Director of Operations & Finance, at time:matters

Neu-Isenburg, 1 August 2016: Christian Mörtl is to assume the role of Managing Director Operations & Finance with effect from 1 August 2016.

Christian Mörtl, Head of Aircraft Handling at Lufthansa Cargo to date, will now be responsible for the Operations and Finance divisions at the time:matters Group. The 44-year-old Austrian, who has gained extensive management experience in various logistics roles within Lufthansa AG and Schott Glas, Mainz, will therefore succeed Armin Hamm, who left the company of his own accord on 31 May 2016.

Christian Mörtl was born in Hilden on 07/04/1972 and is married. He is an enthusiastic motorcyclist and enjoys touring Africa.

“We are delighted to have gained a true logistics expert for our company with Christian Mörtl”, said Franz-Joseph Miller, Managing Director of time:matters. “Besides his proven operational expertise, what he especially brings is the right entrepreneurial spirit for time:matters and a passion for quality and service that will continue to drive our team forward.”
