

Now also global: time:matters offers the fastest possible transport of dangerous goods

- Worldwide transport of time-critical dangerous goods shipments
- Personally supervised loading on the apron

Neu-Isenburg, December 03, 2019: After a successful start across ten markets in September 2019, time:matters, the expert in global Special Speed Logistics, is now offering the urgent transport of dangerous goods worldwide. This covers time-critical goods in hazard classes 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8 and 9.

The company is combining speed with maximum reliability for this offering. Loading on the apron is personally supervised at the four hubs in Frankfurt, Munich, Vienna and Brussels. Customers save several hours compared to the time it usually takes to transport hazardous goods by air. In Frankfurt, Munich and Vienna, time:matters is even able to facilitate tail-to-tail loading for particularly time-critical dangerous goods shipments.

time:matters is setting new standards in the transportation of dangerous goods through its now worldwide offering. With the geographical expansion of the service, time:matters is meeting the demands of its customers, especially those in the automotive, aviation and aerospace, machinery and components, and life and health sectors, who depend on fast and reliable deliveries of dangerous goods.

About time:matters

time:matters is the expert for particularly urgent transports and complex logistics. Urgently needed spare parts, medical samples, dangerous goods and important documents are transported quickly and reliably from A to B via air, rail and road and if required also personally accompanied via On Board Courier. This is made possible by a global network with more than 500 courier partners and airlines. time:matters generally has access to all available airlines and can therefore utilize a wide range of flight routes: more than 3,000 connections a day to over 500 destinations in around 100 countries. Besides speed and reliability, providing an individual, flexible service is paramount. time:matters is available 365 days a year, 24 hours a day, whenever tailor-made, customized logistics concepts are needed – for everything from ad-hoc situations through to regular business. time:matters has achieved ISO 14001:2015 environmental certification and ISO 9001:2015 certification. The company employs more than 370 people and operates its own terminal for express and courier shipments at Frankfurt Airport. By acquiring CB Customs Broker GmbH in 2018, time:matters incorporated decades of customs clearance and cargo handling expertise. Services covering all standard customs procedures are available as well as complete solutions tailored to individual client needs, including digital solutions for e-commerce customs clearance. CB Customs Broker is an “Authorized Economic Operator” and has been AEO-C certified since 2013. time:matters GmbH has been AEO certified since April 2019.
